

GRADUATE PROGRAMS

Luther Rice offers six graduate programs of study: The Master of Arts in Apologetics, the Master of Arts in Biblical Counseling, the Master of Arts in Christian Studies, the Master of Arts in Leadership, the Master of Arts in Ministry, and the Master of Divinity. These 36-hour Master's degrees are designed to equip students in a limited field of study based on the students' interests or needs. All of the degrees may be earned entirely online or by a combination of both online and on-campus classes.

Students enrolling in a graduate degree program will experience a different kind of educational approach than what is typically found in an undergraduate program. Undergraduate programs provide a broad foundation of general knowledge. Although no particular undergraduate major is required for entrance into a graduate program, graduate studies build upon the undergraduate foundation by providing a higher level of knowledge, understanding, skills, and application. Such education is developed by challenging the student's intellectual and emotional capabilities in analysis, synthesis, evaluation, and judgment.

These Master of Arts programs are limited in their development of students preparing for ministry as a pastor. Pastoral candidates are encouraged to enroll in the Master of Divinity program. Those who are considering pastoral ministry may benefit from earning one of these specialized degrees prior to entry into the M.Div. Transfer of the credits is possible, subject to the limitations for the program of study. The Master of Divinity degree is designed to provide a broad base of knowledge to fit the needs of students preparing for a lifetime of ministry. The M.Div. may be earned entirely online or by a combination of both online and on-campus classes.

A graduate receiving his diploma during commencement ceremonies, held annually at First Baptist Church, Conyers, Georgia.

Master of Arts in Apologetics

The purpose of the Master of Arts in Apologetics degree (MAA) is to equip students with knowledge in issues related to the rational and biblical defense of the truth of the Christian faith.

Apologetics is an interdisciplinary field of study that engages biblical studies, philosophy, theology, and historical theology in the pursuit of defending the veracity of the Christian faith. Students enrolled in the program will become familiar with the essentials from these disciplines necessary for proclaiming and defending the historic doctrines of Christianity.

The MAA program faculty is committed to cutting-edge and biblically-grounded teaching that combines theoretical and practical learning through accessible, student-centered coursework. The program of study promotes excellence in scholarship and equips graduates academically and professionally to advance discourse in apologetics through research, teaching, and service. Graduates are prepared for a variety of careers including church ministries, college ministries, missions, as well as teaching or research appointments in academic settings. The degree includes an apologetic capstone which serves as the culminating academic, intellectual, and ministerial experience for the student.

Program Learning Outcomes

Graduates of the Master of Arts in Apologetics will be able to:

- Interpret the Bible in light of its historical-grammatical context.
- Relate the Church's theological heritage to current apologetical issues.
- Articulate a rational and biblical case for the truth of Christianity.
- Articulate a defense to major objections to Christianity.

Master of Arts in Biblical Counseling

The purpose of the Master of Arts in Biblical Counseling (MABC) program is to equip students to serve as counselors in local churches and other ministry settings.

The MABC program is grounded in Scripture and the application of practical ministry skills to a variety of settings. Students engaged in this program will be equipped with the necessary skills to assist those in need of Christ-centered counseling and/or pastoral care. The program features an evaluation of the most commonly accepted theories of counseling and principles of psychology from a biblical worldview perspective.

The course of study, while not designed to equip students with the required coursework for state licensure, will prepare students to serve as non-licensed counselors in a variety of contexts. Graduates are equipped for service as pastoral counselors, non-licensed community counselors, chaplains, and an assortment of church staff positions.

Program Learning Outcomes

Graduates of the MA in Biblical Counseling will be able to:

- Articulate a biblical philosophy of counseling.
- Communicate biblical and theological truths through counseling.
- Exemplify empathetic pastoral care or referral.
- Convey principles of ethically and legally informed counseling practices.
- Employ interpersonal skills in counseling.

Master of Arts in Christian Studies

The Master of Arts in Christian Studies equips students to interpret Scripture in its historical context and to discern its theological application. The knowledge of God through his word is the essential foundation for all faithful Christian ministry. By focusing exclusively on developing skills in accurate biblical interpretation and sound theological reflection, the MACS curriculum grounds students in critical disciplines for informed ministry application. As preparation for further study, all MACS credits can be applied toward the Master of Divinity degree.

Graduates of this program will be prepared to serve the Church in a variety of contexts such as missions, pastoral support staff, Christian education, writing, and lay ministry.

Program Learning Outcomes

Graduates of the MA in Christian Studies will be able to:

- Interpret the Bible in light of its historical-grammatical context.
- Demonstrate an understanding of Christian theology.
- Communicate biblical and theological truths in writing.

Master of Arts in Leadership

The Master of Arts in Leadership (MAL) equips students with the knowledge and skills necessary to effectively address the most important dynamic in any organization, the relational challenges of working with others within various organizational contexts.

The MAL provides a curriculum that combines the most current theoretical thinking with biblically-grounded teaching and practical application. Students will learn key leadership concepts and skills such as team development, coaching and mentoring, assessing organizations, working within organizational cultures, and conflict resolution.

The degree promotes excellence in academics and provides graduates with the skills to influence those around them through research, writing, teaching, and service. Graduates will attain a greater capacity to work in and with churches and other organizations in order to advance professional and personal goals.

Program Learning Outcomes

Graduates of the MA in Leadership will be able to:

- Employ research methods for organizational analysis and problem solving.
- Articulate a biblical philosophy of leading and following consistent with their vocation.
- Apply Christian leader and follower principles.
- Utilize leadership theories to diagnose and/or design organizations.

Master of Arts in Ministry*

The Master of Arts in Ministry* (MAM) equips students with a wide-ranging knowledge of biblical and theological studies along with exposure to a variety of church-related ministries. Persons serving in a role as a senior pastor or in support role are provided with practical skills on how to function in a local church or support ministry role. This degree program provides a foundational study to the more extensive M.Div. program.

Program Learning Outcomes

All graduates of the Master of Arts in Ministry program will be prepared to:

- Interpret the Bible in light of its historical-grammatical context.
- Utilize the Church's theological heritage as an important resource in their personal spiritual development and ministry.
- Evaluate ministries in light of the Great Commission and the Great Commandment.
- Lead in developing, designing, and implementing ministry programs.
- Communicate biblical and theological truths through preaching, teaching, writing, or such other ways as may be appropriate.

Master of Divinity

The Master of Divinity (M.Div.) degree is designed to provide a broad base of knowledge to fit the needs of students preparing for a lifetime of ministry. The curriculum is representative of those areas considered essential for effective Christian service in a range of contexts. These areas include studies in Bible, Church History, Theology, Preaching, Pastoral Ministry, Counseling, and Missions. Luther Rice College and Seminary offers a 81 credit-hour M.Div. and an 90 credit-hour M.Div., both of which offer an option for biblical languages.

Program Options

Students may choose to complete the M.Div. with open electives or with biblical languages. The open electives track allows students to customize their course of study with twenty-four hours of electives which may be drawn from courses offered for the Master of Arts programs in Apologetics, Biblical Counseling, and Leadership. Students also have the option to follow a plan that includes the biblical languages of Greek and Hebrew. The track with biblical languages provides additional preparation needed for those who will serve in contexts where they regularly proclaim or teach the Bible. Students wishing to continue to post-graduate study may also need the biblical languages as pre-requisites for their chosen fields of research. Students who wish to enroll in the Biblical Languages Track must have a minimum undergraduate GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale.

Course Sequencing

As a general rule, students in their first year of study should complete 5000 level courses, second year students 6000 level courses, and third year students 7000 courses. Courses at the 6000 level assume skills and knowledge acquired from 5000 level courses. Courses at the 7000 level assume preparation at both 5000 and 6000 levels.

Program Learning Outcomes

Graduates of the Master of Divinity program will be prepared to:

- Interpret the Bible in light of its historical-grammatical context.
- Utilize the Church's historical and theological heritage as an important resource in their personal spiritual development and ministry.
- Articulate a biblical philosophy of ministry consistent with their vocation.
- Communicate biblical and theological truths through preaching, teaching, writing, or in such other ways as may be appropriate.
- Evaluate and develop ministries in light of the Great Commission and the Great Commandment.
- Accurately and empathetically evaluate people and their personal circumstances and provide appropriate pastoral care or referral.
- Lead in developing goals and designing and implementing ministry.
- Serve with Christian character in their personal and professional lives.
