

Luther Rice College and Seminary is scheduled to host an Evaluation Team from the Transnational Association of Christian Colleges and Schools (TRACS) from (November 12-15, 2024). This visit concerns the granting of accredited status.

Constituents and members of the public are invited to submit third-party comments concerning Luther Rice College and Seminary's qualifications for accreditation. Third-party comments should be submitted to thirdpartycomments@tracs.org. TRACS will receive third-party comments on this matter until 14 days before the scheduled Evaluation Team Visit.

TRACS shares third-party comments with members of the Evaluation Team prior to the visit, but at no time during the review process will third-party comments be shared with Luther Rice College and Seminary. During its review, the Evaluation Team considers third-party comments only as they relate to TRACS Accreditation Standards.

TRACS is approved by the U.S. Department of Education as a nationally recognized institutional accrediting agency and appears on the DOE Secretary's List of Approved Accrediting Agencies, which is provided in the Higher Education Directory. TRACS is also recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA).
