

Luther Rice College & Seminary

CM 7406 - Church Administration

GRADUATE-LEVEL COURSE

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course examines the specific duties of the officers of the church—both staff and lay personnel. The concept of team ministries is studied along with a view of the role of individual responsibilities within the team. The role of the pastor in relationship to other members of the staff as well as to lay workers in the church is examined. The place of church doctrine within the church administration and ministry is also emphasized.
